

WATERTOWN IS TAKING ACTION TO PREPARE FOR A CHANGING CLIMATE

Extreme storm events, flooding, and other hazards are becoming the norm and climate science suggests this will continue and get worse. The Town of Watertown is taking action to be prepared for these changes and keep the community safe.

Join the conversation on January 23rd to learn more about the process and share concerns and ideas.

Watertown Hazards Public Meeting

Watertown Free Public Library
Watertown Savings Bank Meeting Room
January 23, 2020 ~ 6:30-8:00PM

Free and open to the public!